Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC) Prayer Guide September 6 –12, 2020

“The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective.” James 5:16, NIV

Sunday, September 6

Divine Call

Read 1 Thessalonians 5:24. The Lord is faithful. The PNC is prayerfully considering those who the Lord has guided us to. We humbly submit to Him and ask that he removes any subconscious selfish motive from our minds and hearts. We only want to seek the individual He has called to lead our church.

Monday, September 7

Guidance

Read Isaiah 30:21. The Lord is our ever-present counselor. May we listen for His voice, and boldly follow His instruction. Pray that God would shield each member of the PNC from undue influence and that none are lead astray from our mission.

Tuesday, September 8

God's Promises

Read Matthew 6:31-33. Our Father knows our needs and supplies our daily bread. He provides for our physical needs, and He is also faithful to provide our spiritual needs as a church. Let us remember this promise and thank God for His provision.

Wednesday, September 9

God's Blessing

Read John 1:16. Pray that the members of the PNC stay in close communion with the Lord. Praise God for guidance and a discerning mind as we work diligently to identify the next Pastor the Lord will bless us with.

Thursday, September 10

Covenant

Read Hebrews 8:7. Jesus is our high priest seated at the right hand of the throne. He has conquered the grave, and we are to shout this good news and share it with the nations. Let's thank God for new mercies every day.

Friday, September 11

Obedience

Read Psalm 25:8-9. Today, as we remember the events of September 11, 2001, we humble ourselves as a PNC and church. In all circumstances, we know the Lord is sovereign.

Saturday, September 12

Prayerful

Read John 15:7. Prayer begins with knowing Christ. Knowing Christ means reading His Word. When the PNC and church intimately know our Heavenly Father, we can ask for anything because our hearts are in line with His. Therefore, our desires will be on things beyond this world. As we enter a new season and phase in this process, pray for grace, patience, and perseverance.
